

BECOMING A HUNTER SCOUT...

AS A LEVEL 1 CHARACTER

- Gain all the traits in the Core Hunter Scout Traits table.
- Gain the Hunter Scout's level 1 features, which are listed in the Ranger Features table.

HUNTER SCOUT CLASS FEATURES

As a Hunter Scout, you gain the following class features when you reach the specified Hunter Scout levels. These features are listed in the Hunter Scout Features table.

LEVEL 1: HUNTERS MARK

You can mark a creature with the Hunters Mark.

You can make four marks, and you regain all expended uses of this ability when you finish a Long Rest.

The number of times you can make a mark increases when you reach certain Hunter Scout levels, as shown in the Hunters Mark column of the Hunter Scout Features table.

HUNTER'S MARK

Use: Bonus Action

Range: 90 feet

You mark one creature you can see within range as your quarry. Until the mark ends, you deal an extra 1d6 damage to the target whenever you hit it with an attack roll. You also have Advantage on any Wisdom (Perception or Survival) check you make to find it.

If the target drops to 0 Hit Points before the Mark ends, you can take a Bonus Action to move the mark to a new creature you can see within range.

You can only mark one creature at a time. If you spend a Hunters Mark while another mark is active, the old mark disappears. If you take damage, you must succeed on a Constitution saving throw to maintain the Hunters Mark. The DC equals 10 or half the damage taken (round down), whichever number is higher, up to a maximum DC of 30. Your Hunters Mark ends if you have the Incapacitated condition or you die.

LEVEL 1: WEAPON MASTERY

Your training with weapons allows you to use the mastery properties of two kinds of weapons of your choice with which you have proficiency.

Whenever you finish a Long Rest, you can change the kinds of weapons you chose.

LEVEL 2: EXPERTISE

Choose one of your skill proficiencies with which you lack Expertise. You gain Expertise in that skill.

LEVEL 2: FIGHTING STYLE

You gain a Fighting Style feat of your choice (see chapter 4).

LEVEL 3: HUNTER SCOUT SUBCLASS

You gain a Hunter Scout subclass of your choice. The Beast Caller and the Marksman subclasses are detailed after this class's description. A subclass is a specialization that grants you features at certain Hunter Scout levels.

LEVEL 4: ABILITY SCORE IMPROVEMENT

You gain the Ability Score Improvement feat (see chapter 4) or another feat of your choice for which you qualify. You gain this feature again at Hunter Scout levels 8, 12, and 16.

LEVEL 5: EXTRA ATTACK

You can attack twice instead of once whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

LEVEL 6: ROVING

Your Speed increases by 10 feet while you aren't wearing Heavy armor. You also have a Climb Speed and a Swim Speed equal to your Speed.

LEVEL 9: EXPERTISE

Choose two of your skill proficiencies with which you lack Expertise. You gain Expertise in those skills.

LEVEL 10: TIRELESS

Primal forces now help fuel you on your journeys, granting you the following benefits.

Temporary Hit Points. As an action, you can give yourself a number of Temporary Hit Points equal to 1d8 plus your Wisdom modifier (minimum of 1). You can use this action a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum of once), and you regain all expended uses when you finish a Long Rest.

Decrease Exhaustion. Whenever you finish a Short Rest, your Exhaustion level, if any, decreases by 1.

LEVEL 13: RELENTLESS HUNTER

Taking damage can't remove your Hunter's Mark.

LEVEL 17: PRECISE HUNTER

You have Advantage on attack rolls against the creature currently marked by your Hunter's Mark.

LEVEL 18: FERAL SENSES

Your instincts gives you Blindsight with a range of 30 feet.

LEVEL 19: EPIC BOON

You gain an Epic Boon feat (see chapter 4) or another feat of your choice for which you qualify.

LEVEL 20: FOE SLAYER

The damage die of your Hunter's Mark is a d10 rather than a d6.

HUNTER SCOUT SUBCLASSES

A Hunter Scout subclass is a specialization that grants you features at certain Hunter Scout levels, as specified in the subclass. This section presents the Beast Caller and the Marksman subclasses.

BEAST CALLER

Call on a beast from beyond time.

A Beast Caller forms a mystical bond with a special beast, through old knowledge signing a contract drawing on mysterious forces from the unknown.

LEVEL 3: PACT WITH A BEAST

You call upon a timeless beast, and through the Pact you form with it, the beast draws upon your strength for better and for worse. See the stat block: Hound of Tindalos.

The beast is Friendly to you and your allies and obeys your commands. It vanishes if you die. It also vanishes if it drops to 0 Hit Points or when its stated task is done.

Summoning the Beast. You can take an action to expend a Hunters Mark to summon the beast. The Hound of Tindalos manifest in an unoccupied space that you can see within range of 90 feet. The beast will only show up to complete a specific task, either to defeat your foes during combat or something else. The reason for you to call upon it must be stated beforehand.

The Beast in Combat. In combat, the beast acts during your turn. It can move and use its Reaction on its own, but the only action it takes is the Dodge action to avoid danger, unless you take a Bonus Action to command it to take an action in its stat block or some other action. You can also sacrifice one of your attacks when you take the Attack action to command the beast to take the Beast's Strike action. If you have the Incapacitated condition, the beast acts on its own and isn't limited to the Dodge action.

INT	4	-3	-3	WIS	14	+2	+2	CHA	5	-3	-3

Medium Beast, Natural

AC 13 plus your Wisdom modifier

HP 5 plus five times your Hunter Scout level

Speed 40 ft., Climb 40 ft.

Senses Darkvision 60 ft.; Passive Perception 12

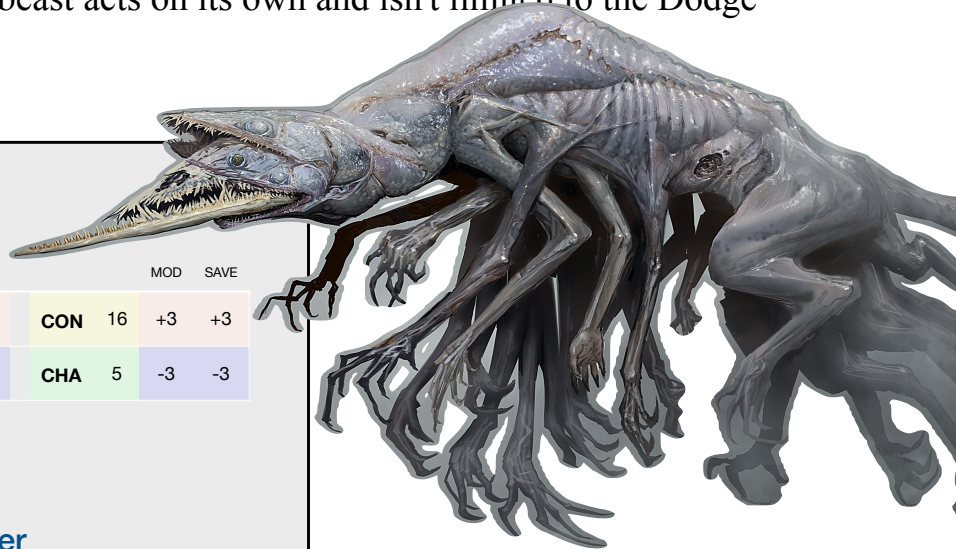

CR None (XP 0; PB equals your Proficiency Bonus)

Traits

Pact. Add your Proficiency Bonus to any ability check or saving throw the beast makes. If the beast reaches 0 Hit Points, you need to make a Grit Saving Throw DC 16. If you succeed nothing happens. If you fail loose Hit Points equals to 1d10 + your Hunter Scout level + your Wisdom modifier and suffer 4 Madness.

Actions

Beast's Feral Strike. Melee Attack Roll: Bonus equals your Wisdom modifier + your Proficiency Bonus, reach 5 ft. Hit: 2d6 + 2 + your Wisdom modifier Slashing damage. If the beast moved at least 20 feet straight toward the target before the hit, the target takes an extra 1d6 damage of Slashing damage, and the target has the Prone condition if it is a Large or smaller creature.

LEVEL 7: DEEPENED PACT

When you take a Bonus Action to command your summoned Hound of Tindalos to take an action, you can also command it to take the Dash, Disengage, Dodge, or Help action using its Bonus Action. In addition, whenever it hits with an attack roll and deals damage, it can deal your choice of either Psychic, Bludgeoning or Piercing damage, or its normal damage type.

LEVEL 11: THE BEASTS BRUTALITY

When you command your summoned Hound of Tindalos to take the Beast's Feral Strike action, the beast can use it twice. In addition, the first time each turn it hits a creature under the effect of your Hunters Mark, the beast deals extra Piercing damage equal to the Hunters Mark's bonus damage.

LEVEL 15: ABSOLUTE PACT

Your summoned Hound of Tindalos now gains the Final Carnage action. You can now command your summoned Hound of Tindalos to make a final attack. The Final Carnage action uses the Beast's Feral Strike action four times. If you command your summoned Hound of Tindalos to take the Final Carnage action, the beast Hit Points will reach 0 at the end of the attack.

MARKSMAN

You specialize in long-ranged firearms and close-quarters punishment, forcing enemies to fear both the distance between you and the mistake of closing it.

Whether you unleash a storm of bullets or deliver a single shot with surgical cruelty, your rifle becomes an extension of your will. In your hands, firearms are not merely weapons, but instruments of execution, sending foes into eternal sleep before they can raise a blade.

LEVEL 3: DEADLY RIFLEMAN

If you are using a Hunters Rifle, it now changes to Trained Hunters Rifle.

Trained Hunters Rifle	Damage: 1d12 Piercing	Properties: Ammunition (Range 150/600; Bullet) Two-Handed	Mastery: Slow	Weight: 10 lb.
-----------------------	---------------------------------	--	----------------------	-----------------------

If you are using a Pistol, it now changes to Trained Pistol.

Trained Pistol	Damage: 1d10 Piercing	Properties: Ammunition (Range 30/90; Bullet) Light, Loading	Mastery: Vex	Weight: 3 lb.
----------------	---------------------------------	--	---------------------	----------------------

LEVEL 3: HUNTER'S PREY

You gain one of the following feature options of your choice. Whenever you finish a Short or Long Rest, you can replace the chosen option with the other one.

Colossus Slayer. Your tenacity can wear down even the most resilient foes. When you hit a creature with a weapon, the weapon deals an extra 1d8 damage to the target if it's missing any of its Hit Points. You can deal this extra damage only once per turn.

Horde Breaker. Once on each of your turns when you make an attack with a weapon, you can make another attack with the same weapon against a different creature that is within 5 feet of the original target, that is within the weapon's range, and that you haven't attacked this turn.

LEVEL 7: ELITE RIFLEMAN

Before making an attack roll with your Trained Hunter's Rifle, you may spend 1 Hunter's Mark to gain mastery with that rifle for the attack if you do not already have it. When you do so, you may also replace the rifle's mastery property for that shot with one of the following: Topple, Sap, or Push. The chosen mastery applies only to that attack.

LEVEL 11: SUPERIOR HUNTER'S PREY

Once per turn when you deal damage to a creature marked by your Hunter's Mark, you can also deal that marks extra damage to a different creature that you can see within 30 feet of the first creature.

LEVEL 15: DEATHMARK RIFLEMAN

Gain the two following benefits.

Deathmark Shot. After you hit with an Attack Roll using your Trained Hunter's Rifle, you may spend 1 Hunter's Mark to turn the shot into a Deathmark Shot. Roll the attack's damage once, then apply that same damage up to three times.

You may apply all three instances of damage to the original target, or divide them among the original target and other creatures within the rifle's normal range.

Point-Blank Retort. When a creature within your pistol's range deals melee damage to you, you may use your reaction and spend 1 Hunter's Mark to immediately draw your pistol and make one pistol attack against that creature.
